Adjunct Scholarship
Appendix Y-1

Purpose of award
• This scholarship is intended to assist in defraying expenses to the NADE conference.

Definition of an Adjunct Instructor
• An instructor who is employed on a part-time basis with an institution of higher education.

Criteria for evaluation
• One year as a NADE member
• Current employment as an educator in a Developmental Education program
• Two to three years experience as an educator in a Developmental Education program
• Two letters of support from supervisors or colleagues

Special features
• Fee waiver for the NADE basic conference registration
• May award up to five per year

Directions for application
• Verification of NADE membership
• Name of employing institution
• Title of teaching position(s)
• Two letters of support from supervisors or colleagues
• One to two paragraphs explaining how the applicant would share information obtained from NADE with colleagues
• See Appendix W or NADE website for specific requirements for submission of application packet to the Awards Committee Chair by November 15.