John Champaign Memorial Award for Outstanding Developmental Education Program
Appendix Y-7

Purpose of award
This award recognizes excellence in a Developmental Education program or one of its components.

Criteria for evaluation
- recognized program quality by peers and campus administrators
- quality service to students
- demonstrated effectiveness through achievement of objective criteria

Special features
- Invitation to present a session at the following year’s NADE conference to highlight the strategies it has used to promote excellence
- $500 stipend

Directions for application
- letter of nomination (1 – 2 pages), which summarizes strengths and achievements of the Developmental Education program
- description of the Developmental Education program (1 – 7 pages)
  - mission statement
  - program components
  - unique program features
  - instructional delivery systems
  - staffing
  - program evaluation criteria
    - percent of student body served
    - number of students served
    - qualitative and/or quantitative research of program effectiveness regarding student outcomes
    - partnerships with other campus or off-campus departments and agencies
- letter of endorsement by state or regional NADE chapter (1 page); chapters may endorse more than one nominee from their service area
- letter of support from nominee's campus administrator (1 page)
- supporting materials of the program (1 – 5 pages)
  - campus promotional materials
  - newspaper/magazine articles describing the program
  - awards received by the program
- See Appendix W or NADE website for specific requirements for submission of application packet to the Awards Committee chair by November 15.

Award Honoree
John Champaign directed the Developmental Education Department at Finger Lakes Community College in Canandaigua, NY. He demonstrated how effective Developmental Education could be with limited resources. His program was recognized as exemplary. Champaign chaired several NADE committees and was chairperson of NADE’s Future Directions Task Force.